NOTES

Withheld votes

To abstain from voting on a resolution, select the relevant "Vote withheld" box. A vote withheld is not a vote in law, which means that the vote will not be counted in the calculation of votes for or against the resolution.

Discretionary votes

If no voting indication is given, your proxy will vote or abstain from voting at his or her discretion. Your proxy will vote (or abstain from voting) as he or she thinks fit in relation to any other matter which is put before the meeting, including a motion to adjourn.

Forms of proxy

If a proxy form has previously been submitted in respect of a shareholding, this will not preclude a shareholder from attending and voting at the general meeting in person.

Joint shareholders

In the case of joint shareholders the signature of any one holder will be sufficient but the names of all the joint holders should be listed on the full name(s) of shareholders(s) line. If more than one holder attends the meeting, the joint holder whose name stands first on the register of members in respect of any shares shall alone be entitled to vote.

More than one holding of shares

If you are voting in respect of more than one holding of shares, you should complete a separate poll card for each holding.
